

Aug 6-12

Day	Description	Matthew	Mark	Luke	John
1	The Anointing at Bethany	26:6-13	14:3-9	(7:36-39)	12:2-8
Note: John puts the anointing at Bethany before the Triumphal Entry while Matthew and Mark place it after. This harmony is following the chronology of John.
2	The Triumphal Entry	21:1-11	11:1-11	19:29-44	12:12-19
Note: Mark presents a clear chronology of the events following the Triumphal Entry, where as Matthew and Luke are non-specific. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Sunday: Triumphal entry - The day is late so Jesus returned to Bethany. - Monday: Jesus cursed the fig tree, cleansed the Temple and left the city. - Tuesday: Jesus taught lessons from the withered fig tree, followed by a day of controversy in the temple and the discourse on the Mt of Olives.
3	Cursing the Fig Tree	21:18-19	11:12-14
4	Jesus Cleanses the Temple again	21:12-17	11:15-19	19:45-48
5	Lessons from the Fig Tree	21:18-22	11:20-26
6	Jesus' authority questioned	21:23-27	11:27-33	20:1-8

ASK: Father, reveal yourself to me through Jesus, that I may know you.
Jesus, meet me here, and deepen our relationship.
Holy Spirit, speak into my mind/heart/life through this passage.
 Draw me into the heart of Jesus. Transform me into his image.

LISTEN: Read passage several times. Try reading it in different translations.
Visualize the scene. Imagine the details. Put yourself into the story.
Ask Jesus if he has a specific application for your life today.
Journal your thoughts, trusting they are God's thoughts given to you.

PRAY: Thank Father, Jesus and Holy Spirit for doing what you asked above.
Thank them specifically where you can sense what they did.
Thank them "by faith" for doing exactly what you needed, even if you can't discern what they did, trusting their faithfulness.
Commit yourself to walk/journey in their WORD all through the day.

LIVE: Do not judge the quality of your time with Jesus by your feelings.
Go into your day trusting God has given you exactly what you needed.
Trust that the Holy Spirit will be leading you all day, just as you asked.
